

IT Infrastructure

CS Telecoms IT Services offers our existing and new customers a complete solution for your always changing business IT needs.

This service means you can have access to qualified engineers without the high monthly salary cost on your payroll.

From desktop support for small user groups to large user infrastructures, CS Telecoms has the qualified IT engineers to assist your business onsite or remotely.

Services included but not limited to:

- Desktop Support
- Software requirements
- Microsoft licenses on affordable monthly rental
- Anti-virus advice and installations
- Document management software's such as Equitrac, Papercut and more
- Email security and archiving in the Cloud
- Disaster recovery
- General IT assistance

Our mission is to bring you a suite of software products and services that will compliment and strengthen your company's business processes to ensure efficiency and improved profitability.